First Year Showcase Directors' Note

Our mission for the First Year Showcase is to be inclusive and to provide a welcome and orientation for our incoming Theatre and Dance students, whether they are first year or transfer students. New friendships, new works, and a short (three-week) rehearsal period all coalesce to form a completely unforeseeable adventure and product. As a process-based artistic endeavor, we are proud to present a show that is site-specific, informed by the natural world, and choreographed and directed completely by our upper-level majors and minors, at various outdoor campus spaces. That's no small feat! Based on the above parameters, we have loosely chosen a theme around a pervasive happening in our culture: Chaos and Calm. We hope you'll enjoy the show. We are very proud of our incoming class!

Co-Coordinators of First Year Showcase
